TEAMMATES IN BASEBALL— PARTNERS IN MINISTRY!

MARK BROWN

Mark's professional pitching career spanned seven seasons, including stints in the Major Leagues with the Baltimore Orioles (1984) and Minnesota Twins (1985). After his playing career was over, Mark worked as an Orioles' minor league pitching coach for two years.

Having been a professional baseball pitcher and pitching coach, Mark has surrendered the talents God has given him to ministering the gospel through sports. In the past he has had the privilege of serving God in various sports and baseball chapel ministries. In addition, through coaching, group clinics, and personal instruction, he has had the pleasure of working with baseball players, parents, and coaches.

Currently, as the Lead Pastor of FBBC, God has allowed Mark the humbling assignment of serving Him through investing in the lives of people. Mark is truly excited about the opportunity the church has through ADP Sports as they endeavor to operate a ministry of excellence.

BOBBY BONNER

Bobby attended Texas A&M University on a baseball scholarship where he earned his Bachelor, Masters and Doctorate degrees. He was elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame and the Rochester Red Wings Hall of Fame. An All-American shortstop, he was drafted (3rd round) by the Baltimore Orioles in 1978. It was during that year that Bobby was born again. He played professional baseball for seven years (parts of four years at the Major League level).

Bobby is the founder of International African Missions (IAM). In 1988, the Bonners became missionaries to the country of Zambia, Africa and were instrumental in helping start over 100 churches. Bobby also started the North Star Bible Institute of Zambia and a Pastor Training Course (PTC) that trains nationals to reach their people with the gospel.

Currently, as the Associate Pastor of FBBC, he serves with Mark in ministry.
